

The 2014 Studies In The Scriptures Conference

Leviticus

“Be Holy For I Am Holy”

Welcome! We are delighted that you have chosen to be part of the 2014 Studies In The Scriptures Conference as we explore the book of Leviticus. While Leviticus is one of the last books seriously studied by Christians, traditionally it was the first book taught to Jewish children. Without doubt, the typological significance of the Levitical sacrifices and priesthood foreshadow Christ’s own sacrifice and priesthood. Therefore, it is not surprising that Leviticus has been called “the Romans of the Old Testament.” In this year’s conference, we all have a wonderful opportunity to explore this often neglected book. A discussion period will follow each lecture, providing all the Conference participants the opportunity to ask questions, probe the issues of Leviticus at a deeper level, and share personal thoughts and insights. The next two days will be a time of intensive study and reflection designed to help each of us. Thanks for coming! May the Lord richly bless our study together.
